CITY AND STREET CAR COMPANY ARE IN CONFERENCE

Island Creek Bridge Matter Under Discussion Today.

Committee is Meeting This Afternoon.

TRACTION CO'S. PROPOSITION.

Representatives of the Paducah Traction company are meeting this afternoon at the city hall with the special joint councilmanic committee, which has in charge the Island creek bridge matter.

There are two views on the bridge matter of permitting the street cars to cross the bridge, but the people of Mechanicsburg are very desirous of securing street car service and will throw the weight of their influence on the side of permitting cars to cross.

It will cost a few thousand dollars more to accommodate the street cars, but it is understood, the traction company will offer to pay on the structure an amount equal to the proportionate cost of the extra width necessary to accommodate the tracks. This is estimated at approximately one-fourth the cost. In addition the company desires a franchise for 20 years and a six year extension of existing franchises, so that the franchises for all lines will expire at the same time. The company considers that but a business safeguard, in order that it may not be in the position of extending its lines through Mechanicsburg, while franchises for the remainder of its system, expire. The Mechanicsburg line would be of little value without the remainder of the system.

Members of the general council, who regard this proposition as fair, and not to the city's advantage, as the possibility of revenue from the franchise is in the remote future, appear ready to agree if the company will agree on its part to extend its line clear through Tyler to the city limits, thus giving the south side people adequate street car service.

These questions are being frankly discussed this afternoon, and the committee will then vote upon its report to the general council boards. Island creek bridge will be thrown open for traffic this afternoon after being closed over a week for repairs. The structure which began to settle has been safely strengthened by 24 piles driven for the piers to rest upon and will hold until the city lets the contract for a re-enforced concrete bridge which is proposed.

Fourth Time Afire.

Four times in 24 hours the fire companies have been called to extinguish a fire in an old stable in the rear of the Wallace Vinegar company, at Eleventh street and Kentucky avenue. Three times yesterday afternoon hose companies Nos. 3 and 5 and truck company No. 4 responded to alarms, and this morning at 10 o'clock the No. 4 firemen answered the fourth alarm. It is thought that flying sparks from passing locomotives is responsible for the multitude of fires.

Old Barn Burns.

An old barn back of the Gregory Vinegar company, Eleventh street and Kentucky avenue, was practically destroyed by fire last night at 6:30 o'clock. Hose companies Nos. 3 and 4 and truck company No. 4 answered the alarm.

SWIMS ICY RIVER.

Thought Stimson Would Win—This His Penalty.

New York, Nov. 17.—John Gear, who thought Henry L. Stimson would be elected governor of New York, early this morning took off his clothes, put on a bathing suit and jumped into the icy East river. With a rowboat following close behind, he swam across the river to Randall's Island, thereby carrying out the provisions of an election bet.

GREAT OCEAN LINERS COLLIDE IN RIVER

New York, Nov. 17.—The North German liner, Prince Frederick Wilhelm, and the French liner Lorraine, both outbound, collided today in the North river. When the vessels returned to their piers, it was discovered the Lorraine had driven a hole in the stern of the Wilhelm and damaged her own bows. It is believed the liners became unmanageable in the strong tide.

Second Day's Session of Memphis Methodist Conference Convened At Half Past Eight This Morning

Result of Board Meetings Yesterday Afternoon Showed In Progress Made With Business Today.

Memphis probably will be the scene of the next annual session of the Methodist Episcopal church, south. The invitation for the next conference to meet in Memphis will be extended by the Madison Heights church, and the church has ten representatives, who are waging a hot fight for the next session. It has been 17 years since the annual conference has met in Memphis, and this is a strong point. Brownsville, Tenn., will extend an invitation for the next conference also and will make a fight for the honor.

The Madison Heights church delegation led by the pastor, the Rev. J. T. Myers, is unusually active in the fight for the conference. The church was rebuilt recently, and is now one of the prettiest churches in Memphis. All of the Methodist churches in Memphis have endorsed the invitation of the Madison Heights church, which is located in a residence section, and the delegates are assured places in homes that are grouped closely, and will not be scattered long distances from the church, as is often the case in large cities.

Peace Reigns.

At the session this morning all the discussion between A. J. Meaders, the conference secretary, and the joint finance board was settled amicably. In accepting the position as secretary, Mr. Meaders declined the position with the restriction that the joint finance board should publish the minutes. With the complete assurance from the members of the conference and the board that no reflection was intended to be cast upon him, and the change in method was made solely as a better business plan, Mr. Meaders said that it was satisfactory to him personally.

The joint finance board made a report just before noon today, regretting that Mr. Meaders had taken the change as a reflection, but declining to return the financial arrangements for printing of the minutes to the secretary again. It was agreed that the printing of the minutes should be let to the lowest and best competitive bidder. After the assurance from Mr. Meaders that it is satisfactory to him, the report was adopted unanimously.

It was stated that there were rumors of charges against the moral character of the Rev. Charles H. Toombs, of Hickory valley, Tenn. He was not present, and he was allowed to withdraw from the conference under charges. He failed to return his credentials.

William Greaves, of the Paris district, was reported of having quit the rural service after two weeks' service, and he was discontinued in the traveling connection.

The Rev. Warner Moore was readmitted to the conference in the Paris district.

After a lively debate, the Rev. Francis H. Cummings was received from the Christian church in the Memphis district. He received some splendid testimonials as to ability, but the question arose as to his credentials being in the proper form.

Oldest Members of Memphis Conference

On horse back 43 years ago the Rev. John H. Witt, of McKenzie, Tenn., then a young minister with not many years' experience in the ministry, rode to Paducah from Tennessee to attend the second annual conference held in 1867. For that trip it required two and one-half days, but despite the handicap of a few more years the Rev. Mr. Witt stands ready today to make such a journey again if necessary.

While in point of service Mr. Witt is the oldest member of the Memphis conference present at this session, he is still hale and hearty and looks years younger. He is one of the most interested delegates at the conference, and takes a keen interest in all of the sessions. The Routine business occupied the conference today. A large number of reports were made by the traveling deacons. The majority of the reports showed that the work was progressing with new members, and the finances in good condition. A number of deacons reported that they were handicapped during the year by illness. The election of deacons was held.

The Bishop's Address.

The conference was called to order promptly at 8:30 o'clock this morning by Bishop Warren A. Chandler, who conducted the opening devotional exercises after prayer by the Rev. R. H. Mahon and a hymn. Bishop Chandler read the scripture lesson from the thirteenth chapter of First Corinthians. In the morning address Bishop Chandler took as his theme the great power of love. He said that some were prone to place

Taylor, of Taylor's Chapel, Tenn., who joined the conference in 1847. He is unable also to be present, and the honor of being the oldest member present falls to John H. Witt, who is third on the list. The Rev. Robert H. Mahon, who delivered the sermon Tuesday evening in commemoration of his semi-centennial service in the ministry, is fifth on the list.

KING'S EFFORTS FAIL IN ENGLAND

London, Nov. 17.—King George's personal efforts to adjust the government's threatened political crisis have failed. The Liberals today issued an ultimatum that the House of Lords must pass the bills limiting its veto power before November 28. Failing in this, the Liberals will force the issue before the people, in a general election.

Premier Asquith's issuance of the ultimatum followed his rejection of the king's offer to compromise differences between the Liberals and Conservatives. Lord Lansdowne today declared the Lords will concede the hereditary principle and fuller representation of certain classes in the upper house as their share toward effecting reforms.

County Unit Platform Is Adopted By Third District Democrats In Convention At Eddyville Today

Seldon R. Glenn, Lyon County, is Unanimously Nominated By Delegates From Three Counties.

Paducah, Ky., Nov. 17.—7890122—Seldon R. Glenn, of Lyon county, on a straight-out county unit platform, to which he attests his loyalty, is the offering the Third district Democrats for state senator to succeed President Pro Tem Conn Linn.

Three counties, Lyon, Calloway and Livingston were represented at the convention here this morning, and the nomination was unanimous. Hon. John L. Smith presented Glenn's name, and the nomination was seconded by George Landrum, of Smithland, and William Clark, in behalf of Livingston county.

Trigg county was not represented at the convention this morning, that county being insurgent and following the fortunes of State Executive Committee Henry Lawrence, in the primary to be held by the Keyes faction of the party next spring. Newton Chrisman presided at and called the convention to order here today.

No reference to Henry Lawrence or any split in the party was made in the platform, which contained the following clause:

"The nominee of this convention, whoever he may be, cannot represent the delegates to the Third district Democratic senatorial convention either on the stump or in the senate except by working and voting for what is known as and commonly called the extension of the county unit law in Kentucky to all the counties of the state alike."

After the nomination Glenn took the floor and pledged himself to support the vote for the county unit law in the state senate, if elected.

GAME BIRDS SHOT FOR CITY MARKET

HUNTERS HAVE BEEN BAGGING AND SHIPPING THEM AWAY FROM HERE.

Birds may not be shot for the market, but, just the same, it required the complaints of local market men that they can't buy birds because of foreign competition, to arouse the authorities to the fact that hunters are slaughtering the game birds of western Kentucky for the city markets. That accounts for the scarcity of birds. While they are nesting and rearing their young, they are shot and their young allowed to die or their eggs to grow cold. No interest was shown until local dealers found themselves unable to buy, because the professional hunters said they could get more away from here. Spotters are now out; but the damage is done.

WEDDING 46 YEARS OLD.

Announced in Daily Papers to Insure Pension.

New York, Nov. 17. Bingham-Lawrence, on July 3, 1864, by the Rev. Samuel Currey, Sarah C. Lawrence and George W. Bingham. This announcement of a wedding forty-six years ago appeared in today's papers here. Bingham, a Civil war veteran, explained to curious friends that he had placed it in the papers because his wife accidentally burned their marriage certificate several years ago. He is getting old, and fears that after his death his wife might have trouble in producing the proof of their marriage to obtain a soldier's widow's pension of $12 a month. A lawyer advised him to guard against such a possibility by advertising his marriage and having witnesses to swear that the advertisement had been inserted.

SUNDAY SCHOOL TRAINING CAUSES THE GREAT PROHIBITION MOVEMENT

DR. HAMILL DELIVERS ADDRESS
BEFORE MEMPHIS METHODIST CONFERENCE AT BROADWAY
METHODIST CHURCH.

The Sunday school is given credit by the Rev. H. M. Hamill, of Nashville, in a great measure for the prohibition movement all over the country. A generation and a half ago, he said last night in his address at the Memphis Methodist conference, the temperance lessons were introduced in the Sunday school and a generation has grown up under this teaching.

Foundations were discussed by him. He insisted that no superstructure, no matter how well constructed, can last unless the foundation is sufficient. For that reason, he argued that the Sunday school is one of the most important, if not the most important, function of the church. He attended the international Sunday school convention at Edinburgh and learned that in England and Europe they don't know what the Sunday school is, as it has been organized in America. In a five minute address before that gathering he called attention to the fact that not 100 men, who had not attended the New York gathering ten years before, were present, and predicted that not 100 of those who heard him would attend the next one ten years later. Yet but one speaker before him had said a word about the Sunday school children from whom the ranks of the convention workers must be recruited.

In Japan he saw how difficult it was to reach the adults, and how easy to reach the children in the school, who would become settled in their beliefs like their parents afterwards. He said it is difficult to keep in mind the fact that the children will become the adults, and it is easier to start the children right than to correct them after they grow up.

In conclusion, Dr. Hamill, who is one of the editors of the Sunday school periodicals and superintendent of the training department of the Methodist church, addressed himself to the specific work of the Methodist Sunday schools and called attention to the lesson helps.

He was heard by an immense audience, which packed the Broadway Methodist church. Mr. John R. Pepper, chairman of the Sunday school board, presided.

NEW REPUBLIC IS DENOUNCED

CATHOLIC SOCIETIES SCORE
NEW PORTUGAL.

Commend Labor Unions and Denounce National Educational Association.

SET UP EDUCATIONAL "TRUST"

New Orleans, Nov. 17.—Principal among the resolutions adopted at the closing session of the annual convention of the American Federation of Catholic Societies was a bitter denunciation of the administration, officers of the new republic of Portugal and a commendation of the state department at Washington for delaying the recognition of the new government. Horror was expressed at the "barbarous inception" of the new republic, President Braga was scored for his alleged persecution of Catholics, harsh treatment of nuns, and the government was declared to be founded on injustice and ungodliness. Following the adoption of the resolutions and the election of officers the federation adjourned to meet next year in Columbus, O.

The National Educational association was denounced for attempting to set up an educational trust as a menace to individual liberty and to the primary rights of the American citizen of choosing the kind of education he may wish to give his children.

The federation declares against the substitution of ethical teaching for religious training in schools and colleges, protested against Bible reading in the public schools, deprecated the use of public funds or public buildings for lecture courses in philosophy, literature or science, urged the establishment of more parish schools and demanded equitable compensation for secular education given in Catholic schools.

Discrimination against the employment of Catholics in the public service because of their religion is condemned.

In connection with the announcement of President Henry that for the first time the federation is represented by two fraternal delegates to the American Federation of Labor in St. Louis, resolutions were adopted expressing sympathy with every legitimate effort of organized labor for living wages and reasonable hours.

Protection of life and decent conditions in the home, mine, factory are endorsed.

Catholics were urged to make a prompt protest against the publication of every newspaper or magazine article offensive to the church and to withdraw their support from all publications whose management paid no heed to the protests.

The establishment of an international Catholic press association is endorsed.

The concluding resolution follows:

"We protest against propagandas which embitter the workingman, preach the gospel of class hatred, confiscation of private property, make marriage a mockery, deny paternal rights and responsibility, and proclaim state control, and even ownership of the child."

This indicates the action of Foley Kidney Pills as S. Parsons, Battle Creek, Mich., illustrates: "I have been afflicted with a severe case of kidney and bladder trouble for which I found no relief until I used Foley Kidney Pills. These cured me entirely of all my ailments. I was troubled with backaches and severe shooting pains with annoying urinary irregularities. The steady use of Foley Kidney Pills rid me entirely of all my former troubles. They have my highest recommendation."—Gilbert's drug store.

The Jeweled Set.

An actress, at the tea in the plaza, according to an exchange, said of Miss Eleanor Robson: "She is a dear. She has married August Belmont. Now she is in the set that I once heard her so wittily ridicule. 'She said that in conversation with a leading matron of this gilded, this jeweled set, she once asked: 'And where do you think you'll spend the summer, Mrs. Van Gelt?' 'Er—the North Cape, I believe,' Mrs. Van Gelt answered. 'One can go skiing there all through August, you know.' 'And where will you spend the winter, then?' 'Oh, Florida, by all means. There's such ripping January bathing at Palm Beach.'"—Exchange.

SAVAGES' VICTIM.

REMAINS OF BARON VON NORBECK FOUND.

Mystery of the Solomon Islands Is Cleared Up—Natives Tell of Slaughter.

Victoria, B. C., Nov. 17.—A mystery of fourteen years concerning the fate of the Austrian scientific expedition of the ship Albatross in the Solomon Islands is cleared up by the finding of the remains of the expedition in the Solomon Islands.

The discovery was made by Dr. Northcott Deck, of the South Sea evangelist mission. News of the discovery of the remains of the party in the Albatross was received today by the steamship Zeelandia from Australia.

The expedition from the Albatross was headed by Baron von Norbeck, and included Lieut. Budick, Midshipman DeBeaufort and nine sailors. Dr. Beck found evidences of a massacre on a native island, and from the natives learned the details of the slaughter.

The Austrians, according to the natives, were surprised by the blacks. Baron von Norbeck was tomahawked by a savage who crept up behind him. The sailors fought off the blacks after several were wounded, and made camp where the baron died.

During the night the camp was again attacked, and only three of the men escaped. They made their way to the coast without learning the fate of their fellows who fell into captivity.

Remnants of the remains cast aside after the cannibal feast leads Dr. Deck to believe that the captives fell prey to the inhuman practices of the savages.

MARK TWAIN

A New Edition

Now for the first time you get a complete set of all Mark Twain's writings at just exactly one-half the price they have ever been sold before. This is a new edition, just as complete as the old one, which still sells, by the way, at $50.00. This new edition is only $25.00—for the 25 volumes.

It had been Mark Twain's ambition to have his books in every American home, and he made a great personal sacrifice to bring about this remarkable opportunity—for the first time in the history of publishing, copyrighted books are sold at the price of non-copyrighted books—the chance will not come again.

But for Mark Twain's action this would have been impossible. Never before has a copyrighted library set of a standard author's works been issued at such a low figure.

His Complete Works— 25 Beautiful Volumes

Brander Matthews says: "Mark Twain will be included in that group of writers headed by Moliere and Cervantes. With the exception of Count Tolstoi, Twain was the greatest of recent modern writers, and will be handed down to posterity through the trio of his works 'Huckleberry Finn,' 'Tom Sawyer,' and 'Pudd'nhead Wilson.' Twain is a greater stylist than Stevenson or Thoreau, and his 'Man that Corrupted Hadleyburg' is one of the finest works in English literature." Mark Twain himself wrote a preface to this edition. Brander Matthews has written the biographical criticism of Mark Twain and his work. There are portraits of the author at periods when the different books were in process of writing.

There are beautiful pictures by such artists as Frost, Newell, Smadley, Thulstrup, Clinedinst, Kemble, and Oppel. The binding is in rich red repasse book cloth, with title labels stamped in gold. The books are printed on white antique wove paper, especially made for this edition. Each volume is of generous size and bulk, 5x7 1/4 inches.

Rubber Industry in Malay States.

Washington, Nov. 15.—An enterprise that bears all the earmarks of a venture by the rubber trust is the theme of a report made by United States Consul James T. Du Bois, at Singapore.

"A big rubber company," he says, "organized by American capital and now partially owned by English capitalists, has secured tapping rights over all of the government forest reserves in the Federated Malay States.

"The territory includes about 5,000,000 acres, and the company has obtained the right to tap all jelutong trees on this wide area for a period of ten years, with a renewal privilege for seven years more. This company holds also large rights in South Borneo, in Sarawak, and in the Karimam Islands. They turned out 325,000 pounds of jelutong last year and realized for their recent sales $1.25 a pound.

On the Karimam Islands, situated a short distance south of Singapore, the company is erecting a $300,000 factory in addition to the large one now in operation in Sarawak. This factory will handle all the jelutong received from concessions outside of Sarawak. It is claimed that early in 1911, when the mills will be in full operation, they can produce 6,000,000 pounds of jelutong gum, 10,000,000 pounds in 1912, and 12,000,000 in 1913. These are estimates made by those interested in this great enterprise which promises to monopolize the jelutong market."

The dominating interest of the Americans in the concession is indicated by the fact that of last year's shipments, 12,824 tons came to the United States, 1,009 to Great Britain and 5,093 to continental Europe.

NAVY YARD EXPENDITURE CUT $300,000 BY MEYER.

Washington, Nov. 17.—Secretary Meyer, who has just returned from an extensive trip of inspection of the navy yards and stations, managed to make his trip profitable by cutting off $300,000 of naval expenditures in these yards. The secretary is preparing his recommendations to congress regarding the discontinuance of some of the yards and substantial improvements of others.

OPERA-MAD

SPECULATORS GET AMAZING PRICES FOR SINGLE SEATS.

At Metropolitan House Speculators Reap Rich Harvest from the Musical Enthusiasts.

New York, Nov. 17.—The World says:

The opening of the grand opera season in New York Monday night came with a rush of folk and a crush of money unprecedented in the history of the Metropolitan Opera House—a sensationalism not at all to be accounted for by the fact that Gluck's ancient opera, "Armide," was to be presented for the first time in this country. Whatever the beauty of the opera, it has no pretense theatrically to splendor.

The audience Monday night, however, supplied that quality in high degree. It went further. That part of the population of New York which for generations has found it easy to keep in steady glow a blaze of opulence, and that other part of the population which has just found itself able to have money to burn, swept down upon the Metropolitan in silent limousine cars and jolting, talkative taxicabs so that the glittering vehicles were in line for blocks in all direction. Perfumes from jeweled collars and rosy shoulders flooded the street. Traffic policemen grew hoarse.

Golden Night for Hawkers.

The ticket speculators can remember no other such Eldorado. The gloved hands of women's escorts reached out feverishly to snatch orchestra chair tickets, flaunting in return for every single one of them a $100 bill.

In other words, late comers Monday, paid for an orchestra seat the price of a diamond ring, a suburban real estate lot or an operation for appendicitis.

Money, red, yellow and green, was swiftly sent into the clutches of the speculators for stall box seats at $50 a seat.

In the onrush of those who would be there, the "dress circle," ordinarily available at $3 a place, went aeroplaning till you couldn't sit in one of those retired nooks unless you had a $20 bill to wipe across the eyes of a sidewalk vendor of goldenly precious pasteboards.

There were many hundreds who passed the speculators in scorn and lined up at the Metropolitan box office to ask for seats at regular prices, but who came back humbly to beseech favors of the pariahs of the playhouses. Some crumpled altogether at the prices demanded and went instead to a vaudeville show. But the majority administered obesity cures to their money rolls.

The opera house seems to have begun the richest season it has ever known from a monetary viewpoint. The subscriptions already recorded reach $800,000.

"The Climax" Pleases.

Luigi Golfanti, the Teacher—Arthur Coglier.

Pietro Golfanti, His Son—Chester Barnett.

John Raymond, the Doctor—Thomas Sinclair.

Adelina Von Hagen, the Pupil—Florence Webber.

"The Climax" pleased a big house at the Kentucky theater last night. The four characters in the play were well taken, though one cannot withhold the opinion that they would have been better had they managed to avoid a trifling inclination toward caricature instead of delineation and to burlesque, rather than subtlety. Still the company brought out all the natural and engaging humor of the piece if they did fall a little short of excellence in the intense moments, and the story of "The Climax" in entraining itself and the lines natural and bright. It was a most interesting play and the interest was sustained to the very end. Miss Webber has a beautiful voice and Chester Barnett plays the piano brilliantly. The melody of the "Song of the Soul," which runs through the action of the play, gives it the well deserved title of the melody drama.

Tonight, Himmelstein's Imperial Stock company will present "Queen of the White Slaves" at the Kentucky, with entire change of vaudeville numbers between the acts. Friday and Saturday night "Charlotte Temple" and "Tracked Round the World" will be played. The Saturday matinee bill is "Marching Thro' Georgia."

Al Field's Minstrel company will pay its annual visit to the Kentucky theater Monday night. The reputation of the company for novelty and excellence is maintained this year, with added features in commemoration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the organization. In New Orleans

Daily Thought.

The riddle of the world is understood
Only by him who feels that God is good.
—Whittier.

Majorities are logical.

We have solved the mystery; that was Little Nemo who floated over Paducah in an airship Tuesday night.

The window glass trust, which is throwing missiles at the attorney general, should remember the old adage.

Kentucky and Tennessee are suffering from the unwholesome political connection between murderers and officers of the law.

Wonder if Champ Clark doesn't consider those members of his party, who favor taking the appointment of committees entirely out of the speaker's hands, a little radical.

THE MEAT MARKET.

If the report of a falling market in meat was inspired by the packers for the purpose of causing farmers to rush their stock to the market, it will react in public indignation against the packers and result in costing them more in illegal profits than they will gain by getting a better grip on the meat situation.

In many places, while the packers have reported a drop, the retail dealers say they can't feel any reduction and the consumer is paying just as much for his meat. On the other hand, pork, which caught the aviation fever a year ago, tumbled several cents the pound, and undoubtedly, many farmers, after comparing the price of corn and pork at the moment, hurriedly disposed of their porkers. The result of this, of course, must inevitably be that the packers will acquire just that much more of the visible supply, and being able to put it in storage, are just that much more able to maintain their grip on the situation, while their combine lasts.

In view of the oft repeated assertion of the big packers themselves, that there is a grave scarcity of meat animals, the big corn crop could hardly account for the falling in the price of meat. It is true that corn is transmuting into pork and beef through the processes of digestion and assimilation, but the transmutation could scarcely affect prices so quickly. Rather, the big corn crop should have a tendency to cheapen the food and encourage farmers to keep their stock over winter in anticipation of big prices in the late winter, thus accentuating the scarcity of hogs and cattle and bolstering the market.

But farmers, like the majority of people, are more apt to sell on a falling market than on a rising one. Let wheat go up to a dollar a bushel and the average man with wheat in his granary will be possessed of an almost irresistible impulse to hold on and see if he can't squeeze another cent or two out of it. Let it drop from seventy-five to seventy cents and he will see visions of fifty cent wheat and feel all the glow of realizing a twenty cent profit by selling at seventy. We'll venture the assertion that the rumor of a drop of a cent and a half a pound for pork chops produced a panic in the breast of two-thirds the owners of hogs, whereas when they could have secured eleven cents they hoarded their hogs as if they possessed the intrinsic value of the fabled sixteen-to-one.

We went through a panic two years ago: thousands and thousands of men were out of employment, and the incomes of thousands more were reduced; yet the price of meat did not fall. Rather, it kept on increasing. If the sudden demoralization of the ultimate market and the abrupt collapse of the consumers' buying capacity did not break the market, it seems remarkable that a big corn crop could do it. But we shall see what we shall see.

THE TARIFF.

Expressions from Democratic press and many Democratic congressmen of their desire to go slowly in the matter of tariff revision, is encouraging, as indicating that they are alive to the dangers of the situation. Whether they can handle the situation is another thing.

This outspoken conservatism, at least, indicates one thing we frequently have called attention to: the

ROOSEVELT'S "NEW NATIONALISM."

1. Elimination of special interests from politics.
2. Complete and effective publicity of corporate affairs.
3. Passage of laws prohibiting the use of corporate funds directly or indirectly for political purposes.
4. Government supervision of the capitalization not only of public service corporations, but of all corporations doing an interstate business.
5. Personal responsibility of officers and directors of corporations that break the law.
6. Increased power of the federal bureau of corporations and the interstate commerce commission to control industry more effectively.
7. Revision of the tariff, one schedule at a time, on the basis of information furnished by an expert tariff commission.
8. Graduated income tax and graduated inheritance tax.
9. Readjustment of the country's financial system in such a way as to prevent repetition of periodical financial panics.
10. Maintenance of an efficient army and navy large enough to insure the respect of other nations as a guarantee of peace.

proximity of all parties to a common ground. If the Democrats desire to reduce the tariff wisely, they could do nothing better than to co-operate with President Taft, who before his election expressed his tariff views thus: adopting schedules that afford reasonable revenue for the support of the government, having consideration for the difference in cost of production in this country and abroad.

There will be radical, undisciplined Democrats, who will desire to reduce the tariff by cutting and slashing rates, to the demoralization of business, wholesale and retail. There will be others, with records already established, who will desire to "protect" industries in their sections at all hazards, and these will combine with "high protection" Republicans and with one another to deliver the goods to the men who elected them. There will be a disposition, already manifested, to injure in every way possible the administration, by abolishing the tariff commission. This will have the active co-operation of many Republicans as well as Democrats, representing special interests, which don't want the government to secure accurate information on the tariff subject.

No sensible, fair-minded Republican wants a tariff so high that it works an injustice on the consumer, while enriching manufacturers, without benefiting producers and laborers; and no sensible, fair-minded Democrat would want the tariff reduced, so that European goods made by cheap labor and brought over in government subsidized steamboats may be sold on our markets so low, that American manufacturers will be compelled to reduce wages to meet the competition or go out of business. There is a common ground suggested by President Taft, on which the Republicans and Democrats can meet by taking up the tariff schedule at a time and considering it in the light of the data presented by the tariff commission.

Attorneys for the prosecution in the Carnack murder case, declare they were tricked, through the information that the trial of Robin Cooper was continued, and in their absence the attorney general at Nashville moved a verdict of acquittal for the defendant. There's another bad taste in the mouth of Tennesseans.

STATE PRESS.

Hunting in Christian.

The Rt. Rev. Charles E. Woodcock will arrive in the city tonight from Louisville and will be the guest of Hunter Wood, Sr., for several days. Mr. Wood and the bishop, who is a fine shot, will go to North Christian tomorrow on a quail hunt.—New Era, Hopkinsville.

Johnson Inevitable.

By the remarkable race he ran in the Fourth district, Congressman Ben Johnson becomes, as The Review forecast months ago, the inevitable candidate of the Democrats for governor next year. McCreary, Hendrick, Addams and Head will be also rans. O'Rear versus Johnson would make a pretty race.—Third District Review.

In Tennessee.

Some interesting deductions may be made from a comparison of the votes for gubernatorial candidates in Tuesday's election and those cast for congressmen in the various counties. The following figures are taken at random from various sections of the state: Trousdale county, Hooper, 372; Taylor, 447; Hull, 661; Odum, 198. Dyer county—Taylor, 1,349; Hooper, 1,074; Garrett, 2,032; Brown, 246. Williamson county—Taylor, 2,061; Hooper, 1,488; Padgett, 3,371. Cocke county—Hooper, 1,834; Taylor, 715; Sells, 1,662; Lyle, 564. Tipton county—Hooper, 1,494; Taylor, 1,315; Gordon, 2,331. Hawkins county—Hooper, 1,706; Taylor, 862; Sells, 1,454; Lyle, 450.

11. Use of national resources for the benefit of all the people.
12. Extension of the work of the department of agriculture, of the national and state governments and of agricultural colleges and experiment stations so as to take in all phases of life on the farm.
13. Regulation of the terms and conditions of labor by means of comprehensive workmen's compensation acts, state and national laws to regulate child labor and the work of women, enforcement of better sanitation conditions for workers and extension of the use of safety appliances in industry and commerce, both in and between the states.
14. Clear division and authority between the national and the various state governments.
15. Direct primaries, associated with corrupt practices acts.
16. Publicity of campaign contributions not only before election, but after election as well.
17. Prompt removal of unfaithful and incompetent public servants.
18. Provisions against the performance of any service for interstate corporations or the reception of any compensation from such corporations by national officers.

These figures indicate a considerable Democratic vote for Hooper in all sections of the state. Comparison cannot be made in the Second congressional district, where there were two Republican candidates and no Democratic candidate, and it is evident that Mr. Cy Lyle, Democrat, did not poll the full Democratic strength in the First district. He ran considerably behind Taylor, though Hooper's vote largely exceeded that cast for Sells, Republican nominee.—Nashville Banner.

Heard in the Lobby

Unknown "joy riders" used Richard Caliss's horse and buggy last night to carry out their plans and caused the owner a good deal of worry. Mr. Caliss left his horse hitched at First street and Broadway and when he returned at 10 o'clock it was missing. He notified the police and a hunt was begun. At 1:30 o'clock this morning the rig was found hitched to a post at Tenth and Husbands streets by Patrolman Rockman, who drove it to Thompson's stables. It was restored to Mr. Caliss this morning. The horse, when found, showed signs of having been driven fast.

TRIMBLE FOR CLERK.

The Ex-Kentucky Congressman Announces His Candidacy.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 17.—Ex-Congressman South Trimble, of Kentucky, is a candidate for clerk of the next house. It is understood here that Col. "Lon" Livingston, present representative from the Atlanta district, but who failed to be nominated, will be in the race for clerk if he finds his friends give him sufficient encouragement. The clerkship has been held by some former member of the house for forty years or more.

GIRL DEAD, BOY LIVING.

Victims of Mysterious Night Assault in Houston, Tex.

Houston, Tex., Nov. 17.—Information from the infirmary is that Florence Simpson, the 11-year-old girl is dead. Buck Bridges the 18-year-old boy so mysteriously assaulted while sleeping about 3 a. m. Tuesday is still alive. His death is expected. The child had her head crushed with a flat iron and the boy was dealt a blow with a window weight at about the same hour and presumably by the same person.

Baseball Association.

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 17.—At the annual meeting of the National association of professional baseball leagues here today, M. H. Sexton, of Rock Island, Illinois, was re-elected president. J. H. Farrell, of Auburn, N. Y., was re-elected secretary for ten years at a salary of $5,000 a year.

Methodist Conference.

gifts by nature above Christian life, but he emphasized that love is supreme in the world. He took up the three points of the essential superiority of love over all things, the character of this love, and the permanency of love.

In this republic Bishop Candler said the people sometimes gain a wrong conception of the term "rights," but he pointed to the example of Christ in paying the tax. He said that the golden rule should be interpreted in a broader meaning than it is usually given it. He defined it as meaning that "I will not think about others as I would not have others think about me."

He closed his address with emphasis on the hope of Jesus Christ, and advised the delegates to follow the example and not give up any task because it seems hard. In all kinds of work, he said, everybody has a limit, but they should reach that before stopping.

The report of the men's missionary movement was read this morning. While it is a new movement a good report was made.

Resolutions of respect were passed to the memory of R. M. King, of South Memphis, who died since the last conference.

Bishop Collins Denny, of Nashville, will arrive tomorrow and will deliver an address at the anniversary of the conference board of education. The time of the address of Bishop Denny was left to the convenience of Bishop Denny and Bishop Candler.

Dr. T. C. Schuler, of Nashville, editor of the Midland Methodist, delivered a sermon this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Broadway church. Dr. Schuler is a brilliant speaker and editor, and is popular in Paducah.

Tonight the Rev. David Leith, presiding elder of the Paris district, will preach.

Friday evening the anniversary of the missionary board will be held. Bishop Candler and Dr. W. W. Pinson, of Nashville, general secretary of the board of missions, will deliver addresses.

The attendance this morning was much larger than the opening day. The main auditorium was filled this morning with delegates and visitors, while during part of the session the walls were lined with spectators. The session was enjoyable despite the large amount of routine business on hand, and the keen wit of Bishop Candler was much enjoyed.

Conference Notes.

Judge J. T. Peeler, a prominent lawyer of Huntington, Tenn., is a working member of the conference.

One hundred of the Bible class of the Broadway Sunday school attended the Anniversary service last night in a body and enjoyed Dr. Hamd's speech very much.

The dispatch of business by Bishop Candler this morning was executive and vigorous. He knows how to carry the work forward.

Hon. J. R. Reeves editor of the "Hardiman Free Press," Bolivar, Tenn., is a member of the conference. His paper is a vigorous defender of the Democratic faith, and he is a vigorous editor.

Judge L. H. Estes, of Memphis, Tenn., is a member of the Conference and is one of the leading jurists of the state.

Geo. C. Wilkerson, Harry J. Wright and J. W. Young are busy men of the Conference. They are treasurers of very large boards that handle much money.

One of the big men of the conference is the Rev. J. V. Freeman, of Henderson, Tenn., who is as jolly and popular as he is big. He is an unofficial "understudy to the bishop" at the annual conference sessions. The stranger eager for a handshake with a bishop invariably thrusts the unsought honor upon Mr. Freeman. This may be the shadow of coming events, though as he is not yet over age or under size for a bishop.

The Rev. W. A. Freeman, of Humboldt, Tenn., is another former

The Rev. G. W. Banks, who will be transferred to Parkersburg, W. Va., and the first pastor of the Fountain Avenue church, is also a former pastor of the Third Street church as well as the Trimble Street church before the new church was erected during his present pastorate. The former pastors of the Trimble Street church present are: Warner Moore, W. W. Armstrong, J. W. Irion, and G. W. Banks. The former pastors of the Third Street church are: L. T. Ward, J. W. Waters, W. C. Sellers, W. P. Hamilton, P. H. Fields, G. W. Banks, G. B. Baskerville and the present pastor, J. B. Pearson.

The Rev. Grant T. Sullivan, the host of the conference, is the busiest man at the conference. Despite the fact that he has a multitude of duties, he has a smile and pleasant word for everybody.

FUSION MAJORITY

Returns from Nearly Every County in Tennessee Have Been Received.

Nashville, Nov. 17.—Returns from legislative races in all the counties except Hancock, Perry, Shelby and partly DeKalb have been received. The most interesting returns of the day were those from the Twenty-sixth senatorial district—the Rogers-Watson-Thomas contest. The returns show Rogers (D.), 4,232; Thomas (I. D.), 3,201; Watson (R.), 2,888.

The action of the Perry county commission in awaiting the arrival of Candidate Brown's attorney has delayed a report from that senatorial district. The DeKalb county commission is to meet Friday and investigate alleged irregularities there and the definite returns in the Preston-Adams race will not be certainly known until they act. In the Second district, in the Cox-Chestnut race, irregularities in Sullivan county have been referred to the state board. In the returns as they now stand Cox has been elected by 89 votes.

On the face of the returns the other senators elected by the "regular" Democrats are: Bass, Adams, Albright, Baxter, McAllister, Jones, Boyd, Turner, Page, Matthews, McKay, Russell, Bacon, Parrish, Rogers, Draughon, Total, 16.

In the case of Boyd, the Wayne county commission expressed the opinion that the "regular" ballots were illegal, and the opinion was referred to the state board. Boyd's majority on the face of the returns in the district was 555. Wayne county gave him 533 votes. Also there are, or probably will be, contests against Rogers, Parrish and Draughon.

The fusionists, judging from political alignments of the members-elect, have elected, according to the face of the returns, Butler, York, Hale, Houk, Parks, Hicks, White, Holladay, Hickerson, Layne, Brooks, Askew, McFarland, Caldwell, Total, 14.

Banks has filed notice of contest against Layne. The returns show: Layne, 4,194; Banks, 3,878. The house, from all appearances, will be 54 fusionists to 45 Democrats. This counts Ausmus elected in Claiborne county. The returns of the new election board there indicate this. The returns of the old board indicate the election of Dr. Day, Democrat, by 500 or more. Either way would still give the fusionists a majority in joint convention.

Money Is for Harmon.

Washington, Nov. 17.—That Gov. Judson Harmon is the most available man for the next Democratic presidential nomination, is the opinion of Senator Hernando D. Money, of Mississippi, Democratic leader in the senate, who arrived here today from New York, where he attended a conference of the members of the monetary commission. The senator is elated at the recent election results and sees the Democratic party moving forward to a great national victory in 1912. Speaking of Gov. Harmon, of Ohio, Senator Money said: "He combines the essential qualities of leadership. His honest integrity, his courage and the sterling soundness of his Democracy, his unparalleled personal triumph in sweeping Ohio—the president's own state—the inspiration which his great victory has given Democrats everywhere are a few of the things that make him an ideal candidate. He is a strict constitutional and states-right Democrat."

Senator Money thinks that the Democrats of the Sixty-second congress should revise the Payne-Aldrich tariff at the earliest opportunity without reference to the tariff commission. The senator said that in New York the Democrats were discussing Harmon and Woodrow Wilson as the next Democratic nominees for president and vice president, respectively.

Newark, N. J., Nov. 17.—Another postponement was taken today of the inquiry into the mental condition of Mrs. Caroline B. Afghan Justice.

Some grim stories are told of Afghan justice. A moolah (priest) showed his disapproval of the Amer's prospective journey to India by predicting that he would never return. The priest was summoned to the royal presence and asked whether he had made such a remark. Knowing that there had been several witnesses present at the time, he answered in the affirmative. He was commanded to repeat his remark. As he did so the Amer cried, "Do not say another word!" He instructed a tailor who had been sent for to sew up the lips of of moolah, saying: "His mouth shall not be opened, should I return safely; but should I fail to return open his mouth and proclaim him a true prophet throughout the Afghanistan.—Christian Herald.

A Dubious Treat. In honor of the eventful day of graduation from a cooking school, she got up a little spread. "Yes, I've got the loveliest diploma!" cried the fair graduate. "It's on sheepskin parchment, with a big, gold seal. I cooked that dish you are eating. Now just guess what it is."

"Is it—er—" the young cynic paused impressively, "is it the diploma, Peggie?"—Success Magazine.

Woman's Club Anniversary Tea.
The Woman's club celebrated its fourth birthday this afternoon with an Anniversary Tea at the club house. It was made a social occasion and the usual club business features were eliminated. Each club member was privileged to bring a friend and the assembly was a brilliant one. The Hospitality committee had charge of the afternoon and made it a charming event.

The lower floor of the club was a bower of chrysanthemums in the yellow and white shades. The club colors, yellow, white and green were effectively carried out in the reception hall, the library and the auditorium.

Mrs. Frank Fisher, Mrs. Victor Morris, and Mrs. James Utterback welcomed the guests in the hall.

Receiving in the auditorium were: Mesdames, James Rudy, A. R. Meyers, Eli G. Boone, William C. Cooder, of Cincinnati; Frank Boyd, Charles R. Lewis, of Memphis; J. Denis Moequet, A. Hatfield, Haley, of Kansas City, Mo.; I. D. Wilcox, Max B. Naim, of Bowling Green; George Flournoy, B. L. Bradley, [A. J. Reitz, John K. Ferguson, David C. Wright, Charles K. Wheeler, C. S. Brookwater, Armour Gardner.

The dining-room hostesses were: Mrs. John W. Keiler, Mrs. James P. Smith, Mrs. Henry Rudy, Mrs. Clarence Sherrill, Mrs. Sidney Loeb, Mrs. Charles Kiger, Miss Minnie Ratcliffe. The table was a charmingly appointed affair. It was covered in Cluny lace and had for its central arrangement an exquisite effect in pink chrysanthemums. Festoons of pink tulle caught with pink chrysanthemums and ferns made a graceful outline. Crystal compotes of pink and white confections further carried out the pink tones. Delightful ices and cakes were served.

An orchestra played throughout the afternoon.

Unique Announcement Party.
The following from the Jackson (Tenn.) Sun is of interest here, where the bride-elect is popularly known:

"This morning Mrs. Paul H. Russell gave a most charming entertainment in honor of Miss Rosa Mercer, whose approaching marriage was announced to the large company simultaneously in a very unique manner. About one hundred and fifty invitations were issued, each lady being requested to bring her thimble, as the entertainment was to be a 'sewing party.' In the reception hall, which is a beautiful apartment hung with antique tapestry, gorgeous yellow chrysanthemums were very effectively used, and in the parlor which opens with broad sliding doors into the hall, the same bright flowers beamed a golden welcome, while in the dining room bride roses decorated the table which was decorated with cluny lace design that showed to fine advantage on its dark polished surface. When the guests had arrived and were seated each was given a dainty lace trimmed receptacle for sewing caught together with a fresh ribbon bow, which, at the request of the hostess, were all opened at the same time, and on top of the articles contained therein, lay a card inscribed with these words:

"What's in a name?"

"She whom we call Rosa, by any other name will be as sweet. 'So let's make our tokens for her trousseau, because, ere long, on December 14th, she will become Mrs. J. W. Armstrong.'

"The 'sewing bee' was an announcement party, and in an instant the blushing young bride-elect was the center of attraction. In each dainty receptacle was a pretty article for the bride, in which a needle already threaded had been placed so that no time need be lost before the working. There were handkerchiefs, towels, napkins, etc., stamped with the initial of the bride-to-be, and dozens of other pretty articles, all of which when made or marked by a friend under such circumstances will possess the added charm of the pleasant association and will be souvenirs of an event that must always remain a bright spot in the memory of the honoree. An elegant and elaborate salad course was served with an ice and all in all Mrs. Russell's 'sewing bee' was a most unique and delightful function."

Attractive Paducah Visitor to Marry.

Miss Elinor Holmes, who has been the guest of Mrs. W. A. Berry for several weeks, left yesterday for a short visit to Mayfield, en route to her home in Lewisville, Ark. She will be married Sunday to Mr. Frank Duley, of that city. They will make their future home in Lewisville.

Beautiful Luncheon for Popular Visitors.

Mrs. George Flournoy was the hostess at a charmingly planned one-o'clock luncheon today at her attractive country home, Lional Lodge, in honor of Mrs. Ben Johnson, of Bardonia, and Mrs. William C. Cooder, of Cincinnati, the guests of Mrs. Eli G. Boone.

Chrysanthemums were used throughout the rooms with artistic effect. The table was a beautifully appointed affair in a color-motif of pink. A large bowl of pink chrysanthemums is the centerpiece. The place cards were the Lional Lodge invitation cards, with the hostess' court of arms and Lional Lodge lettered in silver, making pretty souvenirs of the occasion. The menu was a delicious six-course affair.

The guests were from Mrs. Flournoy's two clubs and the eight covers included: Mrs. James A. Rudy, president of the Woman's club;

Mrs. Elbridge Palmer, Civics chairman of the Woman's club; Mrs. Alonzo Meyers, president of the Delphic club; Miss Dow Husbands, secretary of the Delphic club; Mrs. Ben Johnson, of Bardonia; Mrs. W. C. Cooder, of Cincinnati; Mrs. E. G. Boone, Mrs. Flournoy.

Rogers-Cartwright Wedding This Morning.

The marriage of Miss Sara Rogers to Mr. Edney B. Cartwright, of Chattanooga, Tenn., was solemnized this morning at the First Presbyterian church at 10 o'clock. It was a pretty church wedding characterized by the charm of simplicity.

The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion by the Young Ladies' society of the church of which the bride was a popular member. Palms and ferns were banked about the altar, on the organ and in the windows, with yellow and white chrysanthemums effectively interspersed.

A beautiful musical program was rendered before the ceremony. Miss Adah Brazelton was at the organ and played "The Prelude" from Lohengrin as an introductory. Miss Mabel Shelton sang "The Wedding Song," by Adam. Just preceding the bride's entrance Miss Anne Bradshaw sang "Why I Love You." Miss Brazelton used the Lohengrin march for the bridal procession and the Mendelssohn as the recessional. "Call Me Thine Own" was softly played during the ceremony.

Miss Rogers entered with her father, Mr. James B. Rogers, who gave her away. Mr. Cartwright came in with his brother, Mr. James A. Cartwright, of Knoxville, Tenn., the best man. They were preceded to the altar by the ushers: Dr. I. B. Howell and Mr. Emmett Bagby; Mr. Clarence Bennett and Mr. Slavic Mail.

In the absence from the city of the Rev. H. W. Burwell, the ceremony was impressively pronounced by the Rev. G. T. Sullivan, of the Broadway Methodist church.

The bride wore a becoming tailored suit of blue broadcloth with hat, shoes and gloves to harmonize. She carried an arm bouquet of white chrysanthemums.

Mr. and Mrs. Cartwright left immediately on a southern bridal trip. They will be at home in Chattanooga after November 26.

The out-of-town guests present were: Mrs. G. W. Gardner, of Hopkinsville; Mrs. D. F. Smith and son, Vernon, of Hopkinsville; Mr. James A. Cartwright, of Knoxville, Tenn.

Pretty Home Wedding.

A beautiful ceremony united Miss Pearl Watkins to Mr. Rollin Adcox Wednesday night at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Watkins, at Lone Oak. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. T. J. Owen. The bridal pair were led by Mr. James McLaughlin and Miss Murrell Pitman to the soft strains of Lohengrin, played by Mrs. Fred Rouse. The bride was becomingly attired in white with hat and gloves to harmonize, while the maid of honor was attractively gowned in pink silk. The entire house was decorated with ferns and potted plants, carrying out the scheme of pink and white. After the wedding a delightful supper was spread. Mrs. Adcox is a beautiful young lady of the brunette type and her charm has won for her a host of friends. Mr. Adcox is a popular and enterprising man of Lone Oak, and has also a host of friends. Mr. and Mrs. Adcox will make their home at Lone Oak. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Adcox, Mr. and Mrs. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Pepper, Mr. and Mrs. Y. Rouse, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rouse, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Park, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Richey, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Watkins, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Watkins, Mr. and Mrs. Charley Watkins; Misses Maude Callahan, Maude Bagwell, Edna Watkins, May Watkins, Murrell Pitman, Hattie Allen; Messrs. Chrysanthemums were used throughout the rooms with artistic effect. The table was a beautifully appointed affair in a color-motif of pink. A large bowl of pink chrysanthemums is the centerpiece. The place cards were the Lional Lodge invitation cards, with the hostess' court of arms and Lional Lodge lettered in silver, making pretty souvenirs of the occasion. The menu was a delicious six-course affair.

The guests were from Mrs. Flournoy's two clubs and the eight covers included: Mrs. James A. Rudy, president of the Woman's club;

NO MORE GRAY HAIR

It is easier to preserve the color of the hair than to restore it, although it is possible to do both. Our grandmothers understood the secret. They made and used a "sage tea," and their dark, glossy hair long after middle life was due to this fact. Our mothers have gray hairs before they are fifty, but they are beginning to appreciate the wisdom of our grandmothers in using "sage tea" for their hair, and are fast following suit. The present generation has the advantage of the past in that it can get a ready to use preparation called Weyth's Sage and Sulphur. As a scalp tonic and color restorer, this preparation is vastly superior to the ordinary "sage tea" made by our grandmothers, and it can be bought for 50 cents and $1 a bottle at almost any first-class drug store, or will be sent direct by the Weyth Chemical Company, 74 Cortlandt St., New York City, upon receipt of price.

NO DESIRE TO ANNEX PANAMA

PRESIDENT MADE POINT EMPHATIC IN SPEECH.

Would Feel Dishonored to Have to Take Over Responsibilities of Panama Government.

PRESIDENT VISITED CULEBRA

Panama, Nov. 17.—President Taft has effectively disposed of the report that the United States is likely to annex Panama. At a dinner given in his honor by President Arosemena and attended by two hundred, Taft aroused enthusiasm when he declared the American people would feel utterly dishonored in annexing Panama unless some conduct on the part of Panama left no other course.

The president arrived at Panama from Culebra, after spending the day in the great cut, where he was surrounded with big shovels, drills and hurrying work trains while occasional blasts sent up tons of rock.

The president reviewed the marines at Camp Elliott, later hearing grievance committees who asked for an increased pay.

This is not likely to be granted, as the wages of the men are higher and the cost of living lower here than in the United States.

On his arrival in Panama, the president proceeded to the American legation where he was called on by Arosemena. Taft returned the call at the palace and proceeded to the banquet. He said:

"We are especially interested in what is done in your government, but this relation neither calls for nor permits annexation.

"We are here to construct, maintain, operate and defend a world canal which runs through the heart of your country, and you have given us necessary sovereignty and jurisdiction over that part of your country occupied by the canal to enable us to do this effectively.

"We do not wish any further responsibility in respect to your government than is necessary in carrying out of our purpose to construct and maintain the canal. We have no desire to add to the territory under our jurisdiction, except as the operation of the canal may require.

"I wish to make this statement as emphatic as possible, because irresponsible persons, without the slightest foundation in fact, have started the rumor that my visit to the isthmus is for the purpose of the promotion of the annexation, when nothing could be further from the truth.

"Panama can not be too prosperous, too healthy, too strong for the United States, and I know I speak the unanimous voice of the people of the United States when I say that they would be most dishonored to have to take over the responsibilities of the government, and would feel utterly no disposition of so doing."

Mrs. Stevens reappointed Mrs. Anna A. Gordon of Evanston, Ill., vice president at large. Other officers will be chosen at a later date. No change, however, is expected.

The use of the "third degree" methods of extracting confessions from persons accused of crimes was condemned in a resolution adopted. Wayman After Erbsteln.

Chicago, Nov. 17.—State Attorney Wayman refused to allow the Chicago Bar association to drop charges of "jury fixing" made against him by Charles Erbsteln. How to Have the Best Cough Syrup and Save $2, by Making it at Home.

Cough medicines, as a rule, contain a large quantity of plain syrup. If you take one pint of granulated sugar, add 1/2 pint of warm water, and stir about 2 minutes, you have as good syrup as money could buy.

If you will then put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (fifty cents' worth) in a pint bottle, and fill it up with the Sugar Syrup, you will have as much cough syrup as you could buy ready-made for $2.50. It keeps perfectly.

And you will find it the best cough syrup ever used—even in whooping cough. You can feel it take hold—usually stops the most severe cough in 24 hours. It is just laxative enough, has a good tonic effect and taste is pleasant. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours.

It is a splendid remedy, too, for hoarseness, asthma, chest pains, etc. Pinex is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, rich in gualic acid and all the healing pine elements. No other preparation will work in this formula.

This recipe for making cough remedy with Pinex and Sugar Syrup is now used and prized in thousands of homes in the United States and Canada. The plan has often been imitated but never successfully.

A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this recipe. Your druggist has Pinex or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

GLASS COMPANY TO CUT WAGES

DEFEAT BY GOVERNMENT CAUSE OF REDUCTION.

That Employees Must Stand 30 Per Cent Reduction or Factories Must Close.

ATTORNEY GENERAL'S NOTICE

Washington, Nov. 17.—The department of justice took notice of the newspaper dispatch from Pittsburgh that the corporations combined in Imperial Window Glass company had served notice on their employees that a wage reduction of 30 per cent was the only condition under which the factories could continue to manufacture. The dispatch said the corporations attributed the ultimatum to the successful prosecution of the combine by the department of justice and the imposition of fines by the federal court officials on the corporation and its officers and directors.

According to the statement of the Imperial officers at Pittsburgh tonight any reduction in wages will consist of the withdrawal of advances made during the existence of the combine which would be dissolved. The attorney general expressed indignation at the first press statement and doubted its truth.

A statement by the department says:

"The Imperial Window Glass company manufactured no glass but was a selling agency, buying the entire output of 50 manufacturers in ten states. It divided among the manufacturers 97 per cent of the blown window glass manufactured in the United States. It began business in January, 1910. By October prices were advanced 70 per cent over April, 1909. The evidence showed that in the first three months of operation the Imperial company earned net profits equal to the capital stock, and during the ten months its business combination cleared $7,000,000, or four times the capital stock."

Indictments were found against 15 directors and officers. The defendants interposed pleas of non contendere, and despite the opposition of the district attorney the court fined each defendant $500 and the corporation $5,200. The statement was also made that the combination during its existence had increased the wages of glass blowers.

Lots of these "reforms" you hear so much about, said Uncle Allen Sparks, consist merely in muffling the alarm clocks, so you can sleep on undisturbed.—Chicago Tribune.

Effective Home Remedy for Tuberculosis

It is a serious matter when the lungs are affected. A trip away or to a sanatorium is not only tremendously expensive, but it involves separation from home and friends. Some are benefited, but none can safely return. Eckman's Alternative is effective—no leaving home necessary. For example:—
231 S. Atlantic Ave., Haddonfield, N. J. Gentlemen: "In the Fall of 1905, I contracted a very severe cold which settled on my lungs. At last I began to raise sputum and my physician then told me I must go to California immediately. At this time I was advised to take Eckman's Alternative. I stayed at home and commenced taking it the last week in October. I began to improve, and the first week in January, 1906, I resumed my regular occupation, having gained 25 pounds, fully restored to health. It is now five years since my cure has been effected, and I cannot praise Eckman's Alternative too highly. I have recommended it with excellent results."

SEIZES STOCK

ACTION TO RECOVER TWO HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS.

An English Woolen Firm Turned Up to Custom Officials by Former Clerk.

New York Nov. 17.—The entire stock of Joseph Brooks & Co., an English branch house in New York city for a quarter of a century, was seized by the government, in an action to recover $200,000 damages, "in consequence of a fraud and other wrongful acts." Alleged evasion of customs duties, disclosed by a former employee of the firm, is the basis for the action.

With the seizure of the goods, it became known that the government had recently instituted suit against the firm, but being unable to serve the summons in the action, because the Brooks are in Huddersfield, England, United States District Attorney Wise obtained a writ of attachment. The writ was served upon Robert G. Herron, manager of the business. The stock is valued at almost the amount of the damages claimed by the government.

Peter Reding, until recently a clerk in the firm's employ, gave the information on which the government acted. Special agents were assigned to investigate his story and according to Mr. Wise examination verified his charges that the company had for years cheated the government by undervaluation of goods and false invoices.

The parent house of the company is at Bradford, England, and the members of the firm reside abroad.

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES

They Are Closely Observing
Public Health Conditions

An examining physician for one of the prominent Life Insurance Companies, in an interview on the subject, made the astonishing statement that the reason why so many applicants for insurance are rejected is because kidney trouble is so common to the American people, and the large majority of applicants do not even suspect that they have the disease.

He states that judging from his own experience and reports from druggists who are constantly in direct touch with the public, there is one preparation that has probably been more successful in relieving and curing these diseases than any remedy known. The mild and healing influence of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its remarkable record of cures.

We find that Swamp-Root is strictly an herbal compound and we would advise our readers who feel in need of such a remedy to give it a trial. It is on sale at all drug stores in bottles of two six-fifty-cents and one-dollar.

However, if you wish first to test its wonderful merits, send to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle, absolutely free. When writing be sure and mention the Paducah Daily Sun.

KONOP IS ELECTED.

Wisconsin's Ninth Congressional District Returns Democrat.

Marinette, Wis., Nov. 17.—On the face of all returns in the Ninth congressional district, Thomas F. Konop, Democrat, of Kewaunee, has a majority of five over Congressman Kuestermann and the certificate of election will undoubtedly be issued to him by the secretary of state.

It is believed that the contest will be finally carried to the house of representatives by Mr. Kuestermann.

Such is Fame.

Although Mr. Thomas Hardy has lived for so long in Dorsetshire, among the very scenes that he has described so graphically, he is of such a modest and retiring disposition that his great fame is practically unknown to a number of the quiet country folks.

An amusing story is told of an enthusiastic admirer of the author who visited Dorset, and approached an old dame who was sitting outside her door.

"Mr. Hardy lives near here, doesn't he?" he inquired, says M. A. P.

"Which Mr. Hardy?" asked the old woman.

"Why, the Mr. Hardy who writes books," replied the astonished pilgrim.

"Oh, I know nought about him," said the country woman, "but there be a Hardy near by who rears grand pigs."—Exchange.

LOWER PRICES

ARE FICTITIOUS

DR. WILEY SAYS INTERESTS

MANIPULATE MARKET.

Want a Better Grip on People Temporarily Released, Expert Says

Developments Will Show.

THEY ARE "AFTER" SOMEONE.

Washington, Nov. 17.—The reduction in the price of meat is a deliberate manipulation of the market, according to Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, chief of the bureau of chemistry of the department of agriculture, in a statement.

"The interests which manipulated the prices upward," said Wiley, "temporarily have released their hold of our throats for the purpose of getting a fresh grip. The reduction in meats is fictitious. Its manipulation was deliberate, just as the increasing of prices was unjust, unreasonable and uncalculated for by conditions prevailing throughout the country. The prices were fictitious at the top notch because they were forced there arbitrarily by the interests."

"Developments will show that the interests are after some one. It may be some independent they hope to drive from cover."

Secretary Wilson said the announced reduction in prices was abnormal. He said it was due to the fact that the drought in the cattle country had reduced the cost of hay, lower prices were certain to come provided somewhere between the farmer and consumer there is no combination or agreement to keep prices up.

WHY SALVES FAIL TO CURE ECZEMA.

Scientists are now agreed that the eczema germs are lodged not in the outer skin or epidermis, but in the inner skin. Hence, a penetrating liquid is required, not an outward salve that clogs the pores.

We recommend to all eczema patients the standard prescription Oil of Wintergreen as compounded in liquid form, known as D. D. D. Prescription. A trial bottle of this D. D. D. Prescription, at only 25 cents, will instantly relieve the itchy. We have sold and recommended this remedy for years, and know of wonderful cures from its use. We recommend it to our patrons.—R. W. Walker Co.

My Corns Don't

Hurt a Bit

Tired, Ailing, Swollen, Smelly, Sweaty Feet, Corns, Calluses and Bunions, TIZ Cures Right OR.

Say good-bye to your corns the very first time you use TIZ. You will never know you have a corn, bunion or callous, or sweaty, tired, swollen, aching feet any more. It's just wonderful the way the pain vanishes. Rub the corn—hammer it with your first if you wish—more pain after TIZ than if there had never been a blemish on your feet. Doesn't that sound good to you? Doesn't it? Then read this.

"The corns on either of my toes were as large as the tablets you make to cure them. Today there is no sign of corns on either foot, and no soreness. It's an up-to-date Godsend."—Sam. A. Hoover, Progress, N. C.

Just use TIZ. It's not like anything else for the purpose you ever heard of. It's the only foot remedy ever made which acts on the principal of drawing out all the poisonous exudations which cause sore feet. Powders and other remedies merely clog up the pores. TIZ cleans them out and keeps them clean. It works right off. You will feel better the very first time it's used. Use it a week and you can forget you ever had sore feet. There is nothing on earth that can compare with it.

TIZ is for sale at all druggists at 25 cents per box, or it will be sent you direct if you wish from Walter Lather, Dodge & Co., Dodge Bldg., Chicago, Ill.

TO WASHINGTON

INVESTIGATION OF INDIAN COUNSEL CONTRACTS.

Original Inquiry Has Been Overshadowed by Discovery of Contracts.

Washington, Nov. 17.—The congressional investigation of the whole question of Indian counsel contracts has been shifted from the West to Washington. Representatives Burke of South Dakota, chairman of the special committee appointed for this inquiry in the closing days of the last session, and who has been presiding over the meetings and hearings in various Western states, has arrived here, and three or four of the other members will reach here in a few days. The committee is preparing for further hearings, at which a number of Washington attorneys engaged in Indian practice are to be examined. A clear bill of health has already been given by Senator Gore, Oklahoma, who stirred up the investigation, as Vice President Sherman and Senator Curtis of Kansas, whose names were mentioned in the debate in congress, and the Republican members of the committee have exonerated Congressman Bird S. McGuire of Oklahoma, who, likewise, was referred to and who entered an emphatic disclaimer on the night congress adjourned. Further than this the committee conclusions have not become known.

The original inquiry has been overshadowed in some respects by the discovery of some contracts in which the fees charged the Indians amounted to 30 and 40 per cent, it is alleged.

DR. FELDMAN DEAD.

Was Preparing to Receive Degree—Audience Was Waiting.

Cincinnati, Nov. 17.—As he was preparing to go to the Hebrew Union college here to receive a degree of doctor of divinity, the highest honor that the institution confers upon its faculty, Dr. Ephraim Feldman, 50 years old, dropped dead at his home. The audience was already gathered at the college when word came of Dr. Feldman's death.

The deceased came from Russia about twenty-five years ago and was widely known as a linguist and authority upon Jewish questions. He had been head professor of the department of the Talmud in the Hebrew Union college for many years.

Merely a Drop in the Bucket.

An old Greenock salt applied for employment aboard a vessel, but, having no discharge papers, he was rejected in favor of a younger man whose written credentials proved satisfactory to the captain. Subsequently, however, the captain was unable to obtain a crew of fully qualified seamen, and at the last moment he signed on the Greenock man for a transatlantic voyage.

The first day out he was put to work washing down the deck, while his rival with the discharge papers was perched aloft with a bucket, adding a coat of tar to the rigging. Even as the old salt was casting sour glances at his qualified shipmate, the vessel gave a lurch and the unfortunate seaman dropped over the side, bucket and all.

The old salt made his way leisurely toward the bridge.

"Now, Cap'n," he said, "you know that mon you signed on w' the papers?"

"Well, what of it, my man?" the captain rejoined.

"He's just gone off w' your bucket."—Everybody's Magazine.

Gold Soup in Jersey.

Sheriff William Harrigan drifted into "Jake the Barber's" for lunch recently, and surprised the husky German proprietor when he called for a plate of gold soup.

"Don't know the meaning, sheriff," said Jake.

"Well, then, it's time for you to get out of business, Jake," was the sheriff's response.

"Can't help it, sheriff; it ain't on my bill of fare."

RICH JAPANESE

HELD IN CHICAGO BECAUSE OF MISSING JEWELRY.

Yoshida, Former Butler of Louisville Family—Girl Not Known in Case.

Chicago, Nov. 17.—A secret love romance between a young Japanese, the son of a millionaire iron founder in Aichi-Ken, Japan, and a 17-year-old American girl, which had its beginning last summer in an amusement park at Louisville, was revealed in the arrest of T. Yoshida, 22 years old, and Ethel Cody, also known as Ethel La Pointe, who the police say are being held for the Louisville authorities in connection with the disappearance of a ring set with diamonds and sapphires and valued at $250 from the home of Fred Breyfogle, a wealthy resident of Louisville.

Yoshida claims to be the son of the vice-president of the Kamezaki Iron Works at Aichi-Ken, Japan, and a graduate from the Tokio Technical college, but previous to his disappearance from Louisville last September he was employed as a butler in the home of Mr. Breyfogle. He denies all knowledge of the ring and says his arrest is due to jealousy on the part of another Japanese who took his place in the Breyfogle home and who was in love with the Cody girl.

The police say they know little about the case and are simply holding the couple for the Louisville police.

Miss Cody was arrested at 810 East Forty-third street, where she has been rooming since her arrival in Chicago. She says she knows of no reason why she should have been arrested. Yoshida admitted to the police that he was in love with the girl. He said he first met her in an amusement park in Louisville and that they saw each other frequently. He came to Chicago when he lost his position and says the girl came here of her own accord to find him.

To Bring Yoshida Back. Louisville, Ky., Nov. 17.—Major Patrick Ridge, night chief of police, was notified of the arrest of Yoshida and the woman in Chicago and an officer will be sent from Louisville to Chicago to bring Yoshida back. Yoshida was a servant in the employ of Mr. Breyfogle at the Welsinger-Gaubert for two months, he having been engaged in Chicago and brought to Louisville by Mr. Breyfogle. Immediately after his departure a diamond scarf pin was missed from the Breyfogle apartments and the local police department was notified of the loss and also of the departure of the Japanese servant and since then the local department had been on a hunt for Yoshida. Nothing is known of the woman arrested with Yoshida.

ARMED MOB

RIOT FOLLOWS SHOOTING OF ALLEGED BOOTLEGGER.

Men, Women and Children Run Into Stores and Homes, Crouching Behind Barred Doors.

Shreveport, La., Nov. 17.—Following the shooting of Thomas Hickey, the alleged leader of a gang of bootleggers by Deputy Sheriff Kelley at Oil City, 20 miles north of here, Hickey's sympathizers gathered in large numbers and began shooting up the town. It is reported that a mob of 75 armed men now have possession of the town. Officers were rushed to Oil City in automobiles from Shreveport.

A number of shots were fired by the rioters and the indiscriminate shooting had continued for an hour when the report was received here, but none of the town's people was reported injured.

Hickey was shot while resisting arrest and it was after the deputy had removed him from the street that the crowd gathered and began shooting. Men, women and children ran into stores or homes and barred the doors and windows.

The sheriff here was appealed to for help. The fear was expressed that the rioters, numbering 75 and gradually being augmented, might make attempts upon the lives of the authorities there, who have been active in waging a warfare upon bootleggers.

Many of the men in the crowd were said to be under the influence of liquor.

Shreveport, La., Nov. 17.—Quiet was restored in Oil City following the arrival of the squad of Shreveport officers. Deputy Sheriff Taylor reported that several of the ring-leaders among the rioters had been arrested and would be brought to Shreveport.
